

Ideas for your delegates

International Association of Chronic Fatigue Syndrome 10th International IAFS/ME Conference

September 22nd – 25th 2011

Ottawa International Animation Festival Various locations North America’s largest animation festival showcases the finest new productions from around the world. September 21-25, 2011 613-232-8769 www.animationfestival.ca	JAPAN: Tradition. Innovation. Canadian Museum of Civilization Gain new perspectives on history by exploring the relationship between tradition and innovation, creativity and necessity, and culture and design in Japan. May 20-October 10, 2011 819-776-7000 / 800-555-5621 www.civilization.ca
War and Medicine Canadian War Museum This thought-provoking exhibition shows how humankind’s desire to repair and heal is perpetually striving to keep pace with its capacity to maim and kill in the age of industrial warfare. May 6-November 13, 2011 819-776-7000 / 800-555-5621 www.warmuseum.ca	Expedition: Artic Canadian Museum of Civilization Walk in the boots of the scientists, explorers, Inuit guides and the many others who took part in this first major Canadian scientific expedition to the Arctic, 1913-1918. Until April 15, 2012 819-776-7000 / 800-555-5621 www.civilization.ca
Foods of the ByWard Market Tour ByWard Market A foodie’s romp through the award-winning restaurants and wonderful ethnic and fine food shops located in the heart of Ottawa’s oldest neighbourhood. Become a food industry insider: meet chefs, producers and food artisans who give this area so much of its character, and experience “the Market” as locals do. Tours also offered in French on Saturdays. Until October 8, 2011 (Saturdays) 613-722-8687 www.cestboncooking.ca	Hidden Treasures from the Bytown Museum Bytown Museum (located along the Rideau Canal) This exhibit presents 41 exceptionally beautiful artefacts from the museum’s significant historic collection including two Regency chairs from Lt. Colonel John By’s house, the presentation silver Drummond Cup, 19th century lithograph prints depicting the Ottawa River and more. June 23 - October 2, 2011 (613) 234-4570 www.bytownmuseum.com

Mackenzie King Estate and Tearoom Mackenzie King Estate Wander the quiet wooded trails and admire the flower gardens and collection of ruins that were the pride of a former prime minister. Until October 16, 2011 819-827-2020 / 800-465-1867 www.canadacapital.gc.ca/king	Ottawa Farmers' Market Lansdowne Park Premium quality, Ottawa-area fruits, vegetables, meats, flowers and crafts. Until October 30, 2011 (Sundays) 613-835-2227 www.ottawafarmersmarket.ca
Extreme Mammals Canadian Museum of Nature From the largest land mammal, to the smallest, to the just plain weird: explore the surprising and often extraordinary world of extinct and living mammals. Until November 6, 2011 613-566-4700 / 800-263-4433 www.nature.ca	Legion Halls Canadian War Museum This exhibition of 25 images documents community life across the country and captures a glimpse of the role that Legion halls play in Canadian communities today. Until November 20, 2011 819-776-7000 / 800-555-5621 www.warmuseum.ca
La Vendemmia: an Italian celebration of wine and food Preston Street Celebrate the harvest Italian style by taking part in a series of Italian wine and food seminars, dinners, cooking demos, wine tastings and a charity grape stomp. September 22-25, 2011 613-231-2815 www.lavendemmiaottawa.com	Carp Fair Village of Carp, Ontario Come celebrate agriculture in Ottawa's countryside, with shows, exhibits, entertainment and good old fashioned fun! September 22-25, 2011 613-839-2172 www.carpfair.ca